

East Tenth United Methodist Children & Youth Center

bloom where you are planted

2018–2019 Benefactor Opportunities

Your commitment is greatly appreciated and will support the center in a variety of ways.

I can help by...

...Supplying the Child's Basic Needs

Parents are asked to pay as low as $75 per week for their child to attend the center, while the market rate is $229 per week.

...for One Month	$400
...for One Day	$20

...Supplying the Classroom's Needs

Each individual classroom has its uniqueness and own set of needs. Provide our classroom teachers and counselors with the flexibility to purchase classroom materials to enhance learning and growth.

...for One Year	$1,000
...for One Month	$85

---

...Supporting Learning & Development Outside of the Center

Give our students the opportunities that all children deserve.

...on an out-of-town Field Trip	$1,500
...on a local Field Trip	$750

...Supporting the East Tenth Staff

Help us recruit and retain the best staff members. Our teachers, support staff, and leadership work tirelessly to provide the best education and community for our families.

...with professional development	$300
...with a staff outing	$150

---

...Supporting the Operations of the Center

By offering your financial resources, we are able to cover those unplanned, yet necessary, expenses. Examples are below.

...with technology advancements	$2,000
...with vehicle maintenance / gas	$100
...with IPS school uniform items	$50

---

*NOTE: All donations are made as unrestricted and will support a variety of budgetary items; above are only ideas for pledges. If you would like to give to the center for a specific cause, please contact Jean Casmir Hill, Executive Director, at jcasmirhill@east10th.org.
